THE PROCESS OF CREATING HABITS

Capture the spirit of enthusiasm and recognize the “thrill of the chase” as a reward of goal seeking. Build a consistent attitude of self-confidence, substitute it for fear, and fear is dissolved.

RECOGNIZE YOUR WEALTH OF POTENTIAL

The practice of goal setting is intended to be a lifelong pattern. The goal setter, like all winners, is marked by the determination. A winner never quits.

MULTIPLY EFFORTS WITH DELEGATION

When teamwork is at its best, effective delegation occurs. Practicing the art of effective delegation is a vital tool in your development as a leader and manager.

BRING OUT THE BEST IN YOUR TEAM

Effective leaders believe in people; they regard other people as a valuable resource with the potential for development and achievement.

QUOTE 1 – THE FUTURE

“As we look ahead into the next century, leaders will be those who empower others.” – Bill Gates

QUOTE 2 – BELIEF

“The greatest motivator of all is belief.” – Paul J. Meyer

FOUR WAYS TO ENSURE PRODUCTIVITY

Keep your team happy, healthy, and productive by having detailed time picture, clear policies, necessary tracking tools, and a focus on high-payoff activities.

Bridging the Gap Between Potential and Performance

Since 1966, Leadership Management® International has been bridging the gap between potential and performance by helping organizations and individuals evaluate their strengths and opportunities through implementation of the unique and proven LMI Process™.

The LMI Process™

- Develops leaders who, in turn, empower their people to use their untapped talents and abilities.
- Identifies key areas the organization should focus on to reach the next level of success.
- Gives direction to an effective solution and delivers measurable results.

The LMI Process™ is designed around The Total Leader® Concept model with four vital components:

- Personal Productivity
- Personal Leadership
- Motivational Leadership
- Strategic Leadership
